

For the first time since 2019, Canadians will come together in-person for the Terry Fox Run, raising funds for cancer research

- The 42nd annual Terry Fox Run will take place on Sunday, September 18, 2022
- The event will once again be held in-person, uniting neighbourhoods and schools across Canada as they participate in the 2022 Terry Fox Run
- For the past few years, the Terry Fox Run has taken place virtually, with participants encouraged to complete their challenge independently due to COVID-19.
- Participation this year is at an all-time high with approximately 4 million Canadians expected to participate in the Terry Fox Run either with their local community or at school.
- This annual fundraiser carries on Terry's dream of raising critical funds for cancer research in Canada.
- Now in its 42nd year, the Terry Fox Run has evolved into the largest fundraising event in support of cancer research in the world, with events taking place in 33 countries and five continents annually and has raised more than $850 million dollars, bringing hope and health to millions.
- The Terry Fox School Run will also take place in schools and communities across Canada on September 23 with over 9,000 schools and over 3 million students participating.
- Everyone is welcome to participate in this classic Canadian tradition and there are no barriers to join and fundraise. You can walk, run, blade or wheel in the Terry Fox Run.
- The Terry Fox Foundation is dependent on the generosity of its volunteers and supporters and is grateful to the more than 20,000 volunteers across Canada
